THE SONS of NEW-ENGLAND have scattered to the remetest quarters of the Union, but wherever they are they will never forget the scenes of their artivety. In the valleys of the great rivers and in the ctill recoding country which we call THE VEST, they will revert do the farm house with its tall well sweep; the little red school house, with the stern, birch ceptered master; and to the solemo, with the stern, birch ceptered master; and to the solemo, with the stern, birch ceptered mater; and continued material the solemon of Partian Sabbaths. Whoever would recall these MES OF HOME, will find an unfailing pleasure in the charming Sketches of New-England Life and Character, to be found in THE MAY-FLOWER, BY MES BESCHER STOWE.

This volume contains a fund of description, of humor and pathor, that would learner its hearty reception, even if it came from an unknown writer.

"This work consults the eccision of the Supreme Court of the United States. The opinions of the Court are in all cases given as they have been printed by the authorized reporters, after correcting such errors of the press or of cliatible as a careful examination of the text has disclosed." I have endeavored to give, in the bead notes, the substance of each dension. They are designed to show the points decided by the Court, not the diots or reasonings of the Judges. "The statements of the case have been made as brest as possible. For many years it has been the havit of all the Judges of this Court to set forth, in their opinions, the facts of the case of the statement, when complete, renders any other superfluxors. When not found complete I have not attempted to restate the whole case, but have supplied, in the report, such facts or documents as we need to me to be wanting.
